LEARNING LABS
Students in need of more intensive intervention are assigned to Learning Labs in order to strategically.

SPARTAN ADVISORY PULLOUT (SAP)
Students with higher social, emotional, or behavioral needs are pulled from Advisory to receive strategic support.

ADVISORY FRIDAYS
On Fridays, all Spartans stay in their Advisory to watch the weekly student-produced TV show, participate in “Fun Friday” activities, attend assemblies, and receive transcript, grade, and attendance reviews.

HONORS CADRES
Honors students are assigned to weekly Honors support groups designed to increase success in Honors and AP

ADVISORY STRUCTURE
All Spartans are placed in an Advisory period that meets 45 minutes daily. Spartans are placed with a teacher, or Advisor, and remain with that same Advisor all four years at Camelback. Spartans are also assigned to the same counselor and administrator all four years.

Students receive credit for Advisory by demonstrating that they embody the core of the mission of Camelback High School - the Spartan SHIELD - and successfully utilize our Spartan Advisory Support Services structure.

The Spartan SHIELD represents the six characteristics of an exemplary Spartan – Stewardship, Honor, Intelligence, Ethics, Leadership, Discipline.

In order to qualify for credit, Spartans must fulfill the following requirements:

Stewardship – Complete 4 Community Service Projects

Honor – Attend 20 Campus Events Per Year

Intelligence – Pass All Classes or Attend Mandatory Tutoring

Ethics – Receive No Referrals and Demonstrate Strong Values

Leadership – Participate in at least One Club or Sport

Discipline – Participate and Demonstrate Exemplary Responsibility
